It is cool.

Court is grinding.

The temperature is falling with the fall.

Oterolism is one of the paramount issues in the Territorial campaign.

Otero and Andrews are to visit Roswell. They will have much explaining to do.

Money is a sure winner. The sporting element sees it and much money is being put up on Money.

Democrats stick to your ticket. From top to bottom it is a good ticket. Stick to your ticket and then you will have no use for Republican "stickers."

If you want good county government to continue you will vote the ticket straight. The shortest line to good government is a straight line and a straight ticket.

Woodruff says he is not working nights, but he is working in the daytime. It is going to take night work as well as day work if he expects to cut down Tohe Odem's majority.

What county in the Territory is better governed than Chaves county. What county contains more and better Simon pure Democrats. Democracy and good government always go together.

BRYAN IS LOYAL.

Admirers of Mr. Bryan and their good opinion of him vindicated in every issue of the Commoner by his earnest, constant and effective advocacy of the election of Parker and Davis. When the National Democratic Convention adjourned there was the usual effervescence of exultation in the excitable element of the prevailing side of the controversies which were there decided. This soon subsided, and with it whatever sense of irritation it had caused.

Mr. Bryan promptly changed his attitude as the leader of one section of the party in a convention, and addressed himself to his duties as one of the acknowledged leaders of the party as a whole, in its quadrennial struggle to overcome the common enemy. Trusted as he had twice been with the chief honor it could bestow, he doubtless felt the great obligation he was under to prove his worthiness to command by his willingness to obey. He gave no uncertain sound, and made no reservation, and left the most skeptical mind no room to doubt the intense earnestness of his support of the Democratic principles, and the candidates who represented them in this campaign.

Why, then, should any statement be necessary on the subject of Mr. Bryan's attitude? The answer is that every body can not see his paper and that persistent efforts are being made by the enemy to weaken the force of his powerful influence by false statements concerning his attitude. These statements would deceive none who see what Bryan is saying from week to week; but thousands of men who do not see it, and who are devoted to him, are being falsely told that he does not want Parker elected and is not laboring to that end. They carry these tactics so far as to say that in certain States the Bryan men are "sulking;" they hope that such rumors will cause a feeling of uncertainty among them.

Any Democrat professing friendship for Mr. Bryan is false to that friendship if he aids by his voice or vote to give the Republican party the victory which Mr. Bryan is laboring with all the force he possesses to prevent.

To sum up the whole matter: When Mr. Bryan was the candidate of the party in 1896, Judge Parker, who differed with him on the money question, supported him cordially, because he preferred Democratic to Republican rule. When Mr. Bryan was the candidate in 1900, Judge Parker again cordially supported him. Now that Judge Parker is candidate of the party, Mr. Bryan, who differs with him on the money question, cordially supports him because he, too, prefers Democratic to Republican rule. Both are Democrats and both submit to the action of the Democratic National Convention.

If Parker and Davis are elected all Democrats will share the honor of the victory. If Parker is defeated let it not be said that it was because of the treachery of Bryan Democrats who refused to follow their leader in support of the ticket.

The united action of Democrats can elect Parker.
